

SIDE A

INFORMANT: MARIE MAKER, OSAGE
 INTERVIEWED BY: LEONARD MAKER
 INTERVIEWED ON DECEMBER 30, 1968
 TRANSCRIBED BY: MONETTE COOMBES
 PROOFREAD BY: NONA KERR

(Talking in background for first minute of tape)

EARLY DAY FAMILY HISTORY

And she said that time, "I want you to come over," she said, "not just wait and wait. When you go by"--I told her, "I think about you when I go by your house"-- "Well that's when you ought to stop and come in." She said, "You know I can't go anywhere --I like for you to come in and visit me." She claims me too. And on her sister's side, you know.

(Aunt Florence?)

Uh-huh. She said she's part of us and you part of her! That way we relation she said. That's the way relation run. This is just like a vein you know going this way. That's all in one relation she said. Oh, I said, I didn't know that. She said, oh you come back. I guess she going to tell me some more. I never have went back. I always think people might say, oh, she might want something, that's why she's over there. But I told her I was gonna stop by sometime when I had more time why I would stop by and visit her.

(Yeah. You ought to ---)

People ought to go and visit people like that, that don't go anywhere. She says she can't see.

(Well, you know, she could get out a little more than she does though.)

Yeah, when it's good weather, she ought to get out because you got to get out and you have to get exercise and fresh air and be active a little bit. She just don't go anywhere at all. I guess she walks around in the house. They say you got to do a lot a walkin'.

(Well she's got that leg. She says Sam and Hattie come over 'bout ever day and see about her, or Dudley.)