

(Where did they live then.)

Oh my, they live over there where the football ground used to.

(Used to be an old house back in there.)

Uh-huh. Used to be old house. I believe it was just a little ways, other side of football ground. Just a little other side.

(What kind of dwelling did they have?)

They had a house. Frame house.

(That was in 1917 I imagine--'16. Now this--)

No. I think it was later than that.

(1917--I was born in 1918 myself.

I thought I got married in 1917.

(You had Leona before me. And another one. You must have got married in about 1915.)

I thought it was '17, but I guess I could be mistaken.

(Or I'm younger than I--(laughter)

And then I took the board over there. I fixed it up and--

(How did--when you fixed it up, did you--I mean was they any prayers made when you fixed it up?)

Yes. Uh-huh. But you won't let me finish talkin'. I start to say I made this board and you ask me something else--well when I got the board all ready, why when I got it finish, all the trimmin's and all the things on there, I was thinkin' 'bout my old people--old mother. Then she'd talk about these different things and I always listened. So that's how come I did that. So before I got things together the board was finish and I prayed. I prayed that someday that this child would grow up to be a man and be a useful man. I thought about his father and my father was close related and someday that he would grow up and have a family--have wife and family. That's the way I had all the good thoughts and wishes for
