

give them up and then Bill's got all of them papers, you know. The whole history.

(Yeah, I've seen several documents he has, you know. That one is about the--
I think it was made in 1832.)

Uh-huh.

(I've read about that and forgot what it is, but I'm going back and read it again. He's got frames you know.)

MORE ABOUT FAMILY - HISTORICAL FACTS.

Uh-huh. You know, he brought one little frame that had his name in Claremore, you remember? He brought that one time. When your father was living.

(He said he gonna--one time he said he was going to get that little thing blown up, you know, so that it would be big, you know.)

Uh-huh.

(He was going to give it to me but he never did. But he might. I'm going to get after him this year about it. Didn't your father--who were his people?

Who were his people?)

His people were Claremore, you know, the part talking about that picture, you know, in history, you know, history books, you know, that he's out of that family. From Claremore, Oklahoma. But I don't know that far back either. I guess it's been many years back, you know.

(Well, where were you--was you born around here?)

Well, I was born down here to the camp.

(Oh, down here south of here.)

Uh-huh. Where that church house is.

(Were there a lot of families living around here then?)

Uh-huh, there was a lot of them.

(Can you remember who any of them were?)

No, I don't--I don't remember that time.

(Older--Older Indians.)

Older ones, uh-huh, I don't remember that far back. But when I remember, it was just us.
