

T-364

Informants: Mr. & Mrs. Fred Walker, Osage

Interviewed by: Leonard Maker

Interview date: December 31, 1968

Transcribed by: Debbie Darrow

Side B

USE OF CROCK OR KETTLE

(Now like do--do Caddos, do they--where they conduct their meetings down there. I haven't been down there, but do they conduct them like we do here?)

Huh-huh.

(They go this other man's way.)

Un-huh. They go--that's Enoch isn't it?

(Uh-huh.)

The Enoch way.

(Enoch and Hoyt.)

Enoch (not clear). That's Mrs. Whitehorn's daughter.

(When they come up here, the way I understood it, I may be wrong, that's just what I heard that when John Wilson, he preferred that crock--you know, you used to have that crock, you know.)

Uh-huh.

(He preferred that crock rather than kettle. Is that right? I don't know.)

Yeah, they used to use that when I--when I remember.

(Crock.)

Uh-huh, when I remember. I still got folks'.

(Have you?)

Uh-huh.

(In later years, this kettle--)

Uh-huh. They use kettle. Yeah, they used to use that. But after folks die, they don't use it, you know, here, but I still got it.

(Yeah, I know, Walter says that you still use that kettle. That brass kettle.)

Uh-huh.

(Was there any specific reason to change it or, do you know of any Fred?)

Fred: No, just that they change. You know, there are, men go up, you