

Uh-huh, seem like it's gotten all that in there, like Bible--everything that Bible said well, it's got that in there.

(I always kind of always, you know--Jack Cossaway he had different view. Did you hear about that, Fred? Did you hear where that First-born Church? I used to hear my dad talk about it. About church was First-born, or something like that.)

Fred: Yeah, he First-Born.

NAMES OF PEOPLE WHO PARTICIPATE IN THIS RELIGIOUS BELIEF

(But he's not anymore, is he?)

Fred: Not from (not clear). But, Grants. Allen Grants, do you remember him?

(Yeah.)

Fred: He was born with 'em.

(Yeah, I know he was.)

Fred: Homer Ramsey, his father and Martin and Freddy. They living.

(Yeah. - Albert.)

Fred: Yeah, they still carrying on. They trying to rent a place there.

(What about this Marie Littlehorn. What kind was his?)

Fred: They that native kind. At the meeting, at this meeting or some Kiowa. They kind of mumble you know.

(Yeah.)

But Homer, he's in bad shape I think: (not clear)--can't walk.

(Well, old man's still living, too, you know.)

They said he's that way, too.

(Yeah, he's in the hospital. He stays in the hospital, I believe.)

Uh-huh.

(He's that way don't know, any day, you know. He's so old anyway. But, Horton, I guess he's got it just like critical, too, serious, too.)

Uh-huh. They said he can't--
