

(Yeah)

But since it become statehood in 1906.

(Uh-huh)

Why they put a law on them. We went down at night. But we killed out limit and quit.

(Why you--you all just traveled by horseback then)

Yeah we rode horseback then.

(Uh-huh)

Shot off the horses.

(Well)

Had our horses trained. And we could stop them.

(Yeah)

Them horses see anything move. They stop right there. They knew what it was.

Just enough to shoot them down.

DEER - TURKEYS - PRAIRIE CHICKENS - AND QUAILS

(I guess lots of turkey and prairie chicken in those days.)

Yeah. We got lots chickens down here now.

(Well)

Deer in this country too. Oklahoma, I think they killed over six hundred in the hunting season.

(Well)

That's pretty good.

(Yes it is. That's good.)

Missouri back. And then Kansas up here.

(Yeah)

Course in Kansas hunting up there. They're a little earlier than we are.

(Uh-huh)
