

New trailer houses. This man up here got a couple of trailer houses.

(But I guess a long time ago there was just a few houses here.)

Yeah wasn't very many houses here then.

(Uh-huh)

NO BIRTH CERTIFICATES BEFORE STATEHOOD

Yeah I just telling them getting that (not clear) out here. Out there when I was born. Didn't have no--that there --when a kid's born what do they call that?

(A birth record. A birth certificate.)

Yeah. Birth certificate. They didn't know what it was then.

(That's right they didn't know what it was. They didn't use them.)

When Oklahoma become a state in 1907. Why things changed.

(Yeah)

I signed my only cousin I had at that time. Put her name down. (Not clear) She'll tell you, she's insurance lady. She sure got a job on her hands.

(Yes she has.)

That tax man he'll be there. I don't know where it is going be at. Whether it will be here or at (not clear) Cafe on the corner there. He'll be up here the Sixteenth. He's going to Texas the Fourteenth. But ain't many old ones left. There's not so much my age.

(Yeah)

(Not clear)

EARLY DAYS WHEN DELAWARES SETTLED HERE

(In those early days when the Delawares came to this country right through here was where they all settled. Wasn't it?)

Yeah. The first settler when they come in the country up there, they settled up in Kansas up here at the Ottawa. Was it Ottawa. I believe it was Ottawa.
