

(Not clear). Well then he married her. They moved up here. (Not clear). But we all was down at Tahlequah. Four wagon loads of us. 'Course I had to go too. Father and mother. One of the smallest ones. 'Course some of the neighbors and their kids with them. We went down and we stayed down there a week. Camped out and stayed there.

(Uh-huh)

FISHING ON ILLINOIS RIVER

Me and two uncles we done a little fishing on the Illinois River.

(Uh-huh)

We had a big old long cane poles. You know. Tied long line on each pole. You know. Tie it back about middle ways. You know.

(Yeah)

Went down and fish with worms. We catch one channel cat that long.

(Well, my goodness.)

Boy it was something catching that fish' though. Had that Dawes Commission that time.

(Yeah)

LAND VALUES - ALLOTMENTS

(Yeah when you made allotment all went down and signed up then.)

Yeah I took mine out west of here. On the prairie out there.

(Uh-huh)

(Name not clear) lives on the place. I sold it to him in 1916.

(Uh-huh)

I should have got more money that I did get. Some talk that they're going to make 'em pay us more money. 'Cause the land went up.

(Yeah)

It runs high around here now.
