

two miles.

(Yeah.)

The Rogers school house was about a mile from us.

(Yeah)

Get on that same road. Six miles west of here. And straight north.

(Uh-huh)

That school house still up there. (Not clear) down there. The Justice down here at Vinita.

(Yeah)

He bought it for the purpose of the church.

(Uh-huh)

(Not clear.)

(That was an old school house.)

Yes. Been there a long time.

(A long time.)

Yeah we'd have to be. Yeah we'd walk everyday, rain or shine. All had slickers and boots.

CEMETERIES

(Uh-huh. Did the Delawares have their own cemeteries in those early days?)

No.

(They just bury out on the uh --)

Well they had a cemetery, long time ago up on the hill.

(Yeah)

Used them for them grass men, I think. Some of the guys were cattlemen.

They brought them up and buried them. Didn't know who they was.

(Well did they call it a name. I mean what name did they use?)

Walker Cemetery.
