

Then it was too late.

(Yeah)

Caught that son-of-a-gun by the hind leg and throwed him. Threwed him.

He got up and took in after the dogs. (Not clear). Hound dogs (not clear).

(Well).

Charlie he rode up there. And got off his horse. Took his (not clear). He stabbed him behind the shoulders. Turn loose of that dog and grabbed that shotgun stock. Grabbed that stock and try to bury his teeth in that stock.

(My--)

When he done that. Old red dog got his throat.

(Yeah)

Then he kill black wolf.

(Hum-m. Yeah those black wolves are bad after livestock.)

(Not clear.)

(Uh-huh)

I told (not clear). (Not clear) at the (not clear). I said (not clear).

(Not clear). I said you can get him now. (Much static on this tape.)

(Good hunting dogs weren't they?)

(Not clear) Wolf hounds.

(Well you had to have some good hounds, dogs in those early days in (not clear) territory.)

Yeah had some good trail hounds. (Not clear) dogs, greyhounds. We'd follow them horseback them days.

(Yeah)

Yeah. Horseback. You know it was lots of grass in them days.

(That's right.)

Why I've wade grass out there that was higher than my head.
