

(Well)

Saw it coming in there. We hitch the horses up. Then out of there we went. Well it was Indian guy that come along and told us 'bout fire breaking out.

(Yeah)

Told us fire breaking out in west. But you can't tell which way that wind going to blow. But we got out of there. (Not clear).

(Yeah)

We didn't like it, over there in Osage anyway.

(Uh-huh. Well you got along with the Osages alright, you fellows when you went over there hunting?)

Yeah we got along with them all right.

(That was way back in the 1880's and 1890's. Wasn't it?)

Yeah. Way back there.

(Uh-huh)

(Not clear)

(Yeah)

Where we was brought up. We lived out there and after she died last, we moved to town.

(Not clear.)

(Uh-huh.)

(Not clear.)

(Well that's good.)

(Not clear.)

DETAILS, OF GOING OUT HUNTING IN OSAGE COUNTRY

(Well, when you fellows went hunting in the Osage country along time ago, did you take any food with you?)
