

WINTERS WERE MORE SEVERE IN EARLY DAYS THAN NOW

(When you folks were living out west of town here. Back in those early days.

Did they have bad weather?)

Yeah.

(Lots of snow.)

They had more snow in them days. Than it seems now. I seen snow a out there higher than that fence post.

(My goodness.)

Farmers wouldn't get out until somebody break the road out.

(Well. That was bad now.)

Yeah.

('Cause the fence post was four or five feet high.)

Boy we had good crops too back then.

(Yeah lots of moisture stay in the ground.)

Yeah.

(Yeah them were good old days then.)

(Not clear.)

MORE ABOUT HUNTING

(Yeah and they didn't have to have any fences.)

Yeah my dad didn't worry about it. Just take the fences down. Go on wolf hunt they leave fence down.

(Yeah)

They went after one and they never did catch him. When they started out

I think they had about twenty, bunch of dogs.

(Yeah.)

(Not clear.)

(Uh-huh)
