

test when you get bac k down there." She had told me what all had happened to her. Tommy had slept with her one night and then this older one had taken her out several times and, and she said, forced her. And then, on this morning-- on the Friday morning--the day we took them back in--she said she had slept in a car there beside this night club and they came up and pulled her out and disrobed her and had intercourse right there on the sidewalk in front of an audience and no one tried to stop it. That's what--you do anything you're big enough to do up there.

(Well--I really don't know what to say. Do the people in town just let that go on?)

Bob: Well, there's no-- Longdale is just a village. It's made up of mostly private clubs. See, it's these guys from Enid, Woodward--they have their trailer houses set out there and they've got little old summer cottages. They come down on weekends. There's no law at all up there.

(I have driven through Longdale--that time I went out to see Kate Osage. I remember the way it looked.)

Bob: Well, this boy that stays with Kate Osage is Albert Bigfoot. I'm trying to show you now near animals they are--he took this aunt and he tore her clothes off and raped her right out there--his own aunt.

(By blood. She was his blood relative?)

Bob: Yeah.

RELUCTANCE OF INDIANS TO TESTIFY AGAINST EACH OTHER

(Did they ever press any charges against him or make any kind of complaint before the law?)

Bob: Indians will not complain against another Indian. This girl down--when they put these girls on the stands--those that they had taped and had a tape recording of their testimony--and then Linda says--they'd read each question that the county sheriff had asked her and then read her answer that was taped and he said, "Did you make that statement?" And she said, "I refuse to answer." And she was claiming that she was married to Tommy. And the judge said,
