

hay then?)

Well, not much. Mostly stacked the hay, yeah.

(How many of those Leafhorse boys were there?)

There was Raft and Jim, and (name not clear) .

(How did that Leafhorse ranch get started? Does anyone know?)

I don't know.

(It started a long time ago.)

SHANAHAN WAS IRISH - MARRIED A CHEROKEE

(Words not clear) Have you heard about an Irishman. He came from Ireland.

His name was Shanahan.

(About when was that?)

Lord, I don't know, exactly. We used to go down by there when I was seven or eight years old, going to town, though I can remember back it was there then. I don't know how long it had been there. It's been there a long time though. So, that's been 70 or 80 years ago anyway.

(Yeah.)

It might have been before that I don't know. It's been there long.

(Did you ever hear what his first name was?)

Well, I don't think I can.

(It wasn't Dick was it?)

I just couldn't say. I remember him when he preached. Him and his wife used to when they were away had a little organ they take it with them, you know, just a small. She played that.

(Well.)

Yeah. I've heard him several times.

(And that was his home place over there. Where that, close to that cemetery?)

What is that?
