March 5, 1969

T-382

Index side A, recording time 45 minutes.

Informant: Vinnie Jones, 82 years old, of Creek Indian ancestry, Father a Freedman
Tullahassee Community, Wagoner County, Oklahoma

Subject: Today as one drives along Highway 51 and at a point about a half a mile east of the little town of Tullahassee, it would tax the imagination to picture an Indian board [illegible] school sitting on the higher ground just south of the railroad tracks. But to Mrs. Vinnie Jones the picture comes easily, because at one time she went to school there at Tullahassee Mission.

Mrs. Jones is unable to recall what years she went to the Mission but would probably be in the late 1890's and early 1900's. Like other [illegible] schools and missions [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]