

(Yes it is.)

It sure is big cemetery.

ZENA COMMUNITY IS VERY OLD - RIVER CROSSING

(That little old community of Zena it must be an old place?)

Well it is. Yeah it's a long time been Zena, cause at Zena used to be a little store there:

(Oh there was?)

And now they've got, oh just several two or three stores there now.

(Yeah)

It's a pretty nice little place.

(Yes. What was it like when you was a young fellow? Was it uh - trading post there?)

Well it was uh, yeah it was. People had, course there was more settlers live around there you know. And had a store there and that's where they trade.

(Yeah. Uh-huh)

It's a nice little place. Pretty good land around there.

(Yes sir it is. Now it wasn't very far from Grand River was it? )

No it wasn't. Grand River was right, well it was east of Grand River.

(Yes)

East of, not to awful far (Sentence not clear - TV competition)

(Well was there a road that ran through that country long time ago. And crossed the river somewhere over in there?)

Well I believe it was, believe it was. That went in towards Zena. There's another one I think that went in towards what they call, that's what they call (word not clear). Ran across in there and I forget the Ferry, they named the place now.

But the old ferry where we used to go use to be back there west of Grove there.

(Uh-hum)
