

him. He was going to try to lead him off, you know.

(Yeah.)

Boy, he swung at him, and he connected. And when he did, everything was on.

(Well.)

Them guys were big fellows. And they stood there, I bet you, for twenty minutes. Just slugger one another. Just-- Boy just sound like a mule kicking. (Not clear) Finally old Tim got too much. He finally got him down and got him on his horse and tied him on and left with him. (Laughter)

(End of Part II - Side B.)
