

And she talk like him (not clear).

(Ella Canoe. You knew her didn't you?)

I do.

(Is she still living?)

Mrs. Postoak: Is she at Pryor?

(She was at Pryor. But then, Katie Sam said she was and that she worked down at the Sequoyah training school for a long time. But she don't know what become of her.)

Mrs. Postoak: I don't know either.

Josephine Bemo, sister to Lewis Bemo I believe. Somebody said she took nurses training.

(Yeah she had brothers.)

I don't know where he went to. (Inaudible)

(Yeah.) (not clear)

I remember this.

(Yeah.)

Mrs. Postoak: I remember her--Katie. She was the tallest one in school.

She sure was. I guess she still lives in Arizona.

(I guess she still does.)

(Much of this part of the tape is inaudible--conversation about former students in a photograph.)

MR. POSTOAK AND WIFE BOTH WENT TO CHILOCCO AND BACONE SCHOOLS

(Mrs. Postoak what years did you go up to Chilocco?)

Mrs. Postoak: I went '28, 27, or '28. Then in '29, the fall of '29, I went to Bacone.

(Well.) (Not clear)

(Answer not clear.)

(What year did you go to Bacone?)
