

(But now around Little Kansas here, do they have anything like that.?)

No, huh-uh.

(Well are there many Indians down-- They're Indians here, but how about up in the town of Little Kansas?)

Well they're all around.

(Just all around.)

Just like we--each tribe up here, I think. My wife says if we Indians would get together, we can run that school.

(Yeah.)

But them white people in town, they get theirs. 'Cause they don't have (not clear). They use that welfare deal to control everything.

(I see.)

At one time we had Indians working in the garage, on school board. (Not clear) Had Indian women working in the cafeteria. Now you hardly find that. That man up there running the town. He is rich, you know. But he control all the welfare check. And (not clear). But you can't fight money.

(No. Once they get in the pie, you can't do much about it.)

Indians so afraid to sell out.

(Yeah.)

Afraid to sell. About having a good business.

(Yeah.)

Yeah we could run this whole place, if the Indians would get together and work together. Well the Indians built the school before.

LONG PRAIRIE AND SPRING CREEK AREA

(Much static on tape) I don't know.

(I've often wondered why. You know there was a tribe of Indians--ever knowed how they got the name of Kansas here?)

Kansas. I can't think of it. I don't believe I ever heard.
