

That's Delaware. That's where my mother and grandfather are buried.

They -- (rest of sentence not clear.)

FIRST DELAWARES COME IN 1860

(Now the Delawares, they came to, I mean, most of them came to this country about the 1860's was it?)

1860, well, somewhere '66 or '67.

('66 or '67.)

They had a 100 years celebration at Bartlesville, or Dewey rather, in 1967.

(Well.)

I was down at Talihina in the sanitarium down there. Said I had T. B. so they finally got me out of there.

(Yeah.)

They got me early, just started. They sent me down there from Claremore.

I was in there 8 months. I had a cancer, had a cancer of my right lung.

They sent me to Oklahoma City, and they took it out. I have to take an x-ray about every few months.

ORIGINAL GROUP NUMBERED 197

(Sentence not clear) -- lots of number, 100, oh I won't say for sure, but it seems like it was 197.

(197 of the original, I mean of the old bunch, that came in here.)

Come in from Kansas.

(From Kansas.)

They came up from Lawrence.

(Well Lawrence, Kansas.)

Came from a little old town up there. Post Office, called Falleaf, Falleaf, Kansas.

(Well.)
