

(Okesa.)

That's between Pawhuska and Bartlesville.

(Yeah.)

Yeah. That's on the, what creek is that, Bird Creek, I believe. I believe that's Bird Creek.

(Yeah, there's a Bird Creek that goes down through there.)

Yeah, I believe that's Bird Creek. Okesa's right pretty well on there.

It's off the highway, its not on the highway. You go about half way,

I'd say between Bartlesville, and Pawhuska then you go south, I think.

Its not too far from Pawhuska.

NEWSPAPERS IN COPAN

(Did Copan ever have a newspaper?)

They had, oh, two or three different kinds.

(Well.)

At one time they had one called the Copan Leader. That's been, oh golly, I was just a little old kid going to school there then.

(Well, my goodness.)

They had it, They had couple or three newspapers there. It didn't amount to much, about like Dewey. Now Dewey's got a paper, I think now.

(Yes.)

They had two or three papers different times there. They had Dewey Globe at one time, they called it. They had Dewey News, then, I don't know what they call it now. Yeah, they got a paper there.

BOUNDARY LINE OF DELAWARE COUNTY

(The Delaware community it ran from where about Dewey up to the Kansas line.)

Oh, about up to the Kansas line.
