

growing up I never did know of any fox around or no coon or nothing like that.

(Yeah.)

Now there's lots of them.

(Well.)

Lot of them. I don't know where they come in from.

(I don't know they just travel through the country, I guess.)

It may be that this here Grand River dam. You know that used to be heavy timber in there.

(Yeah.)

That water might have drove them out. And they just come on out in this way.

(It could have.)

Uh-huh. Yeah I kind of have a feeling like that.

SCHOOLS - TOWN OF CATALE

(Where was your school up in these hills when they had lots of Indians in here?)

Right on this section line. The other side of Carpenters. Right down that way. From Carpenters, let's see, it's just a half a mile.

(Yeah. And that's the only school you had in here?)

Yeah.

(Was that the one they called Kelly school?)

Kelly school.

(Well that's an old place there, isn't it?)

Yeah that's the old Kelley ranch over there.

(Yeah.)

(Not clear.)

(Well there was another little town down here on the railroad when you first came here?)
