

cattle eat up their crop, and they protested, and he beat them up. And the road got through their place and they put a padlock on the gate, and he tried to force through, and they just shot him.

(End of Side A. Side B is not transcribed. It consists of comments made during our drive through the north part of the Wichita Mountain area, where we stopped at several places. The places discussed or mentioned are: Stumbling Bear's allotment and Stumbling Bear Canyon (the "Gap"), Mt. Scott, Mt. Sheridan, Yaparika Creek (Canyon Creek), Guy's old homeplace on his first wife's allotment, Owl Creek (Jimmie Creek), Guy's father's and mother's allotment and Guy's birthplace, Greer County Trail, Meers area.)
