

(Surely)

And I've been here ever since. I don't know how to move, wouldn't know how to pack my things or nothing. (laughter) So I've stayed here. Well, some of the folks have been with me all the time. My nephews and nieces there's some of them here with me.

(Yes)

No, I wouldn't know how to move.

(Well, it's a job to move.)

Yeah. So I thought I'd looked around, I thought I might sell out. I got out and looked see where I liked any place and I never found it. Yeah, I got a creek running right back of the house here, Whitewater.

(Whitewater Creek)

CHURCH IN EARLY DAYS - CAMP FOR 3 or 4 DAYS

(What did the people do for church facilities in your early days, young days?)

The church.

(Did you all have a church close by?)

We went to that Butler.

(Oh, you used the school house.)

School house, used it for church too. Then after that we wne to, after they tore that down, we went up to that Butler Church, Scycamore, they called it.

(Scycamore. That's back over south and east of here.)

Right.

(Right straight east)

And you come along--which way did you come when you come in from Southwest?

(I come straight through there and then turned up this way.)

Well, you come to that there school house up there, church house now.

Oh it's about, let's see, one-two-three, about three miles from here.

Yeah, they'd have big meeting there sometime. And we'd be there three
