

Sam Manus.

(Sam Manus)

Third voice: Well he was Sam's brother. Didn't remember his name. I knew Sam but not him. There was an Oldfield.

(Yeah, Oldfield.)

I don't know, I just can't think of his name.

(And there was a Butler at one time, wasn't there?)

Butler..

((Yeah. (not clear) he was a preacher. Dick Manus, yeah. And there was a Cummins but I don't know his first name.))

I remember preacher Kingfisher.

(Yeah. Kingfisher was another one. Reverend Kingfisher.)

He's been dead about, a little over a year.

(Yeah, well just about a year.)

What's that one's name that use to go--

(Jim Kingfisher)

What was that one's name that used to go to (not clear) He's still living down here. He preaches down here, you know, where the (not clear). Well they have a church down there at them (not clear). They have it just at the house.

(Yeah)

(unclear)

(Yeah I know where that is.)

Think his church is down there at Briggs. Down there at that Briggs school house, you know, east of Tahlequah. Preaches in Indian. That's where them Wilsons come from.

(Oh yeah. He makes a talk down there, everytime they have a picnic.)

Three-quarters. I think its three-quarters.
