

Well, they had a school here after, oh I can't remember. You come to a poor informant. I know when we went to school, we didn't go to school here. We went to school at Chelsea. My father didn't like us to go in country. He sent us to Chelsea. Then we went to Ward's Grove School. I remember that. And we were different. We weren't born here. We were born up on the hill. And then, we have another little school, right over here across the track call it Glass School. And then I went away to school when I was just real young and college after that.

(Ward Grove School, which way was it from the old cemetery up there?)

It's right there by the cemetery.

(Oh, on the east, west side.)

Just at the gate, the entrance.

(Right at the gate there. There's nothin left there now.)

No.

(Humm-- And the Glass School it was on the other side of the tracks.)

It was on close to that hill, up there on the edge of that timber somewhere.

(Yeah.)

John Glass' folks lived up there too. See, I'm the last one of my family.

MORE ABOUT INDIVIDUALS NEAR BUSHYHEAD

(Well how big has Bushyhead been in as far as being a town?)

Oh its' been divided off into streets, avenues. It wasn't incorporated however. It had a lumber yard, grocery stores, dry good stores, good post office, rural routes.

(Well it had--)

Oh it had its days.

(It had a depot, I guess.)
