I asked you to make me a report on this yesterday but since talking to you I have concluded that you might as well make up the abstract to date and leave it open until it is cleaned up, when I will have to to bring it to that date.

I have sold this land and the purch aser will want to get a loan from the state school land commission and it will be necessary to certify to them according to their requirements.

That I want now is to see what there is against it that I may proceed to clean up the title and close the sale after having you to include instruments that are required to go upon record in order to clear the title.

And especially desire to have to settle for the completed abstract.
