private business, I trust he will not expect the nation to pay his expenses going and coming. He tells me he expects to return here about the last of the month. — The controversy between the President and the Congress of the United States is much the uppermost theme of talk and thought here; but just now people who understand the situation seem quite optimistic. — Your ma is having a good and a needed rest.
Dinnie writes that she has postponed her visit here to sometime when the weather is more settled and pleasant.

I think you had better make a supplemental report to the Tax Assessor that I have disposed of the old store property, and the tax thereon will have to come from John Belt. — I have been mailing to you the morning Post as you desired

Your pa.
