

Sardy Dacoin's letter answerd on the 17th Feb 1919. that there were some threats of resumption of hostilities, but do not think it will be done. Capitol was once appraised at $65,000⁰⁰ but never sold. Was again appraised at $100,000⁰⁰ and Okmulgee promised to buy if they could raise money. They I learn have now raised it, and I am expecting an time to be called on to execute deed to the property. - We then will have 3 school properties to sell before our national affairs can be terminated according to treaty

Hon. G. W. Grayson,
Eufaula, Oklahoma.

40

Transcript of G.W. Grayson's reply to Sardy Dacon:

"Sardy Dacon's letter answd. on the 17th Feb 1919. that there were some threats of resumption of hostilities, but do not think it will be done Capitol was once appraised at $65000.00 but never sold. Was again appraised at $100000.00 and Okmulkee promised to buy if they could raise money. They I learn have now raised it, and I am expecting any time to be called on to execute deed to the property. We then will have 3 school properties to sell before our national affairs can be terminated according to treaty."

Wetumka, Oklahoma. February 15, 1919.

Hon. G. W. Grayson,
Eufaula, Oklahoma.

Dear Mr. Grayson:-

I wish to be advised whether you have any good news to tell our people concerning our affairs or the future. I will appreciate very much if you would drop me a line or two concerning our affairs or other matters of important.

I heard that our Capital building at Okmulgee, Oklahoma has been sold. but I did not know whether it was so or not. Kindly advise whether the building is sold or not.

If you hear of anything importance in regard to Creek affairs, kindly let me know.

Yours very truly,

Sardy Dacon,

SD.