Interview with [Name] at [Location]

He told me that he had been in the store for some time and had seen many things. He said that he had seen a man who was very tall and thin. He said that he had seen this man in the store and that he had seen him in the street. He said that he had seen him in the store and that he had seen him in the street. He said that he had seen him in the store and that he had seen him in the street.

There was a man who was very tall and thin. He was wearing a white coat and a hat. He was seen in the store and in the street. He was seen in the store and in the street. He was seen in the store and in the street.

He first saw the man in the store and then in the street. He saw the man in the store and then in the street. He saw the man in the store and then in the street. He saw the man in the store and then in the street. He saw the man in the store and then in the street.

The Beef Creek Store and mill are run by J. Perfor. They didn't use bushel measures.
