Jimmie Birdwell,
Investigator,
February 10, 1938.

Interview with F. J. Best,
521 Northwest 16th Street,
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

I was a telegraph operator for the Santa Fe at Topeka and ten days before the Opening I was transferred to Guthrie. I had to sleep in the little station and cook my own meals for there was not any place to board or to stay. After about a year I bought a shack and two lots where the Masonic Temple now stands.

The first church in Guthrie was a Methodist and was just some boards laid on boxes in a vacant lot.

The first school was in a vacant storeroom and was taught by a lady who charged each pupil $1.00 each month.

I have heard and read that there was lots of trouble in Guthrie, but I did not see much and I spent all of my spare time walking around over town.
