WILSON, JOHN

THE BIRDS OF

7.18.16.

-?-

The second payment in my bill is made up of about 140 hours of work in 27 days, averaging 5 hours a day.
This is the amount of time I have spent after subtracting the time I have spent in the office, and the time I have spent in the library.

JULY 21, 1901.

Simpson lived on Petes Creek about 16 miles.

We took our pack horses at 7:00 a.m. and camped just out side of town at 8:00 a.m. We took a trail that led us through a valley to the south of town.

At 10:00 a.m. we crossed the Arkansas River.

At 11:00 a.m. we crossed the Arkansas River again.

At 12:00 noon we crossed the Arkansas River a third time.

At 1:00 p.m. we crossed the Arkansas River a fourth time.

At 2:00 p.m. we crossed the Arkansas River a fifth time.

At 3:00 p.m. we crossed the Arkansas River a sixth time.

At 4:00 p.m. we crossed the Arkansas River a seventh time.

At 5:00 p.m. we crossed the Arkansas River a eighth time.

At 6:00 p.m. we crossed the Arkansas River a ninth time.

At 7:00 p.m. we crossed the Arkansas River a tenth time.

At 8:00 p.m. we crossed the Arkansas River a eleventh time.

At 9:00 p.m. we crossed the Arkansas River a twelfth time.
