to be so large and the school system has grown until it is one of the best schools in the county. I was connected with two other schools during my teaching career.

I gave up school work to become a lawyer, and have practiced law for a good many years. During this time I was County Judge for seven years. When not serving the county's judicial machinery was in my office. I had several important cases during my practice of law and had three statutes declared unconstitutional.

I decided in 1958 that I was a country boy practicing law so I gave it up and am now at home "taking a rest".
