MR. CAMPBELL'S STORY:

"I came to Oklahoma in 1908.

"About 40 years ago I taught a term of school at Stringtown Ind Ter. I boarded in the home of Rev. Johnson who was then a Missionary of the Presbyterian Church to the Choctaw Indians. He made weekly trips into the interior traveling in a two horse wagon. Mr. Johnsons wife was a highly educated lady. These people were living in McCallister[sic.] It they or either of them are still living they could give some information of value I feel sure."
