

Miss Nellie Louise Oilor, 119 North 9th Street, Okemah, Oklahoma. Born, June 18, 1885, Russiaville, Indiana. Parents, Henry C. and Carolyn (Rodkey) Oilor. White.

MISS OILOR'S STORY:

"My uncle, Perry Rodkey, came to Oklahoma, April, 22 - 1889."

He came from Indiana via Texas.

"Perry Rodkey, participated in the Run of '89. Acquired the site where the Overholser Opera House stands.

"Settled Keokuk Falls in 1894. Named and settled Okemah, Okla. April 22- 1902. Was First Post Master of Okemah

"Keokuk Falls, (a ghost town) Pott Co., Okla.

"Was president of the Shawnee Fair, Ass., 1900 - 1902.

"The Run of 1889.

"Helped survey the site of Oklahoma City,"