GENTRY BURIAL PLOT

The Gentry burial plot was established in the early eighties by W. E. Gentry, the original owner of the property. The plot is one hundred feet square, enclosed by a five-foot stone wall, a beautiful piece of work. The Gentry monument, a sketch of which is attached, stands directly in the center of this beautiful plot, facing the entrance. Two cedar trees and some other shrubbery are in the place and it is well cared for. It is located about 150 yards southeast of the Gentry home.
