HOLT

(HOLT CEMETERY)

The information concerning this cemetery was furnished by Bill Williams, a resident in the community for fifty years. This cemetery was started the date found on the tombetone of Samuel Holt, for he was the first person buried at this cemetery. There were no graves before this time. The Holt family were part Cherokee and they started this cemetery as a family cemetery. After the coming of the Kansas City Southern Railroad, the town of Westville buried its dead at what was known then and is yet as Foreman Cemetery which is located about a mile west of the town.

This family decided to bury its dead at this place. The cemetery was abolished in 1897. Thomas J. Baggett was the last person buried at this place. Baggett was a permitted white man to teach school in the Cherokee Nation. While teaching school he married the daughter of Leonidas Holt. Therefore, he remained in the Cherokee Nation with his wife's people. HUMMINGBIRD, GUS.
