EDITORIAL ON ISPARHECHER

An alarming report was received at the Phoenix office last night at 11 o'clock from Okmulgee, and to substantiate the report this office telephoned Marshal Leo Bennet for a full account of the affair. Marshal Bennett stated to the Phoenix that at 5:30 p. m. Tuesday he received a telegram from ex-Chief 'Spiechie's home, and up to 3 o'clock this morning he had not heard from him. He is unable to give any further information, and does not know the extent of the ex-chief's danger.

WHY HE APPEALED FOR HELP

It is now known why Isparhecher appealed to Marshal Bennett for help. 'Spi has been having some trouble about his allotment, and Tuesday afternoon the neighbors, or those who have been giving the old man trouble, became enraged at something he did and threatened him. He became alarmed and sent for help. The man who carried the telegram to Beggs did not tell the people that it was but a trivial affair, and they magnified the matter until the few became a large armed band. The matter has been adjusted again and all is peace in the region of the home of Isparhecher. -- Phoenix.
