

DAVID PROGRESS

David, Ind. Ter.,
Thursday, October 1, 1896
Vol. 3            No. 1
A. J. Blackwell,    Editor

EDITORIAL ON ISPARHECHER

Chief Isparhecher, of the Creek nation, is a sick Indian, and little hope is entertained for his recovery. He is a red man of the old type and refuses the pale face's medicine, and receives the treatment of the Indian medicine man only, hence his condition.