

THE DAILY CAPITAL

South McAlester, I. T.
Friday Evening, March 12, 1897
Vol. 1, No. 181
Hinds & Jobe, Proprietors

EDITORIAL ON ISPARHECHER

There was an item in the Wagoner Sayings a few days ago that W. B. Watts had gone out to confer with Chief Isparhecher, to see about the best way to protect the rights of citizens and non-citizens. Truly a case of the lion and the lamb.