

THE INDIAN JOURNAL

Eufaula, Ind. Ter.
Friday, Feb. 20, 1903
27th Yr., No. 8
Alex Posey, Editor

LETTER OF FUS PIXICO

Well, so I send you some more news to put in Injin Journal.

One Snake Injin he say it was the coldest time he see since he lay on the ground in the tent when the soldiers was had him 'rested for holding council at Hickory Ground.

Hotgun he say it was get so cold last Sunday night he was had notion to change his name. I ask him what he call himself then and he say Blowgun was have more truth to it than Hotgun Sunday night when the wind was keep on blowing the rags out the cracks in his cabin, He say he was put near burn all the rails up 'round his sofky patch and was cover up good with saddle blankets and wagon sheets and old clothes and things like that and lay right still 'till daylight but was like to freeze to death anyhow and was want to go to South America all night with Crazy Snake.

Choela's old red rooster was freeze to death on his roost that night, and Choela was stay in bed all day and say it was not daylight yet maybe.

My old filly was had a close call too, but I was had him tied up to south side a hay stack on lots a warm manure and that was save him.

Well, I like to know who we going to had for next chief. I see in Journal Roley say he was tired a running for chief and was going to work. Maybe so he was just say that. Porter was not say nothing yet, but I think he was had his eye on it like buzzard on dead cow in winter time. But I was druther had somebody else for chief. Porter was stay too much in Muskogee and St. Louis and Washington and places like that to make good chief. Injins was not like that. Porter he was send deeds by express like he was not want Injins to had it; or, maybe so, he make you come after it to Muskogee. Injins was not like that neither. It was cost too much hotel bill to get deeds that way.

I like to know what Charley Gibson say about it next time he was shot his rifle.