LETTER OF FUS FIXICO

Alex Posey, the Indian editor of the Eufaula Journal, writing under the non de plume of "Fus, Fixico is attracting considerable attention by his assumed dialect, wit, and sarcasm. Regarding the visit of the Secretary of the Interior "Fus Fixico" says:

Well, so Secretary It's Cocked was made up his mind to see what's the matter down her in Injin territory. So he washed Tom Ryan run to the depot and sens a message to Tams Big Pie that was read this way: "Well, so you must had a cab wait for meet the Katy when I get off the Pullman in Muskogee. Maybe so I was come there in the night, or rather after sun up in the morning, or twelve o'clock in the day time. You must had a bras band there, too, and some feller to make big talk, just the same like I was a editor of a newspaper that was printed in the country. Maybe so I was stayed down there twenty four hours and fixed up everything all right so you think you was had a soft snap."

When I was tell Hotgun about it he say, "Well, Secretary It's Cocked was had a good time in Muskogee," cause Muskogee was does things right and the flyer was stop there all the time."

Then Hotgun he say, "A ticket to Muskogee was a like a bird in the hand and worth two to Denison or Fort Smith."

Tookpafka Micco he was say, "May be so the Big Man from Washington was just come down here to see" cause he was from Missouri."
