

THE SOUTH McALESTER CAPITAL

South McAlester, I. T.
June 30, 1904
Vol. 11, No. 31
U. S. Russell, Editor

LETTER OF FUS FIXICO

Alex Posey (Fus Fixico) gets off the following letter at the expense of the democratic territorial convention:

KEY TO LETTER

Clif Jack's Son Clifford Jackson
Judge Stew It Judge C. B. Stuart
Steal Well Russell Stilwel Russell
Man's Field, Make Merry & Corneritis Mansfield
McCurray & Cornish.
J. B. Stump Some J. B. Thompson
Sam Rather Ford Sam Rutherford
Col. Tom Bark Some Col. Tom Marcum
Jim Misgivings Jas. M. Givens
W. W. Hast Stings W. W. Hastings
Ben Lay For It Ben Layayette.
Col. Clarence Dug Last Col. Clarence
Douglas

Lead Better.....W. A. Ledbetter
 Us RustleU. S. Russell
 Bob WillingBob Williams
 Tommy OwingTom Owen
 See A. LoonC. A. Looney

"Well so, Hotgun he say, "the democratic stomp dance down to Durant was tame doings and no box cars jarred off a the main line with enthusiasm. So the republicans was surprised and couldn't understand how come they was no quick witted Irishman present, like Mike Conlan, with sticks of dynamite for fire-crackers to make it more interesting."

Tookpafka Micco he listen close and tell Hotgun, "well, so you was talked in parables."

And Hotgun he looked wise and explain. "Well, so, you see the republicans was had a big fight down South Town last winter and all the newspapers was served it while hot.

"The fun was commence down to Atoka,,where Mike Conlan, the bloody Irishman, was had a mob agin another mob from Coalgate, and tried to stir up harmony in the Bold Elephant party with a bundle a dynamite. He teched it off and throwed a string of box cars off a the right a way and pied all the roasts set up and ready for press in the print shop a Sister Smiser. So that's the way the republicans was start they powwow."

Then Tookpafka Micco he say, "Well' so, now you go on and tell about the big democratic stomp dance down to Durant."

(Wolf Warrior and Kono Harjo they was propped themselves on the elbows and look on the ground and pay close attention.)

And Hotgun he go on and say, "Well' so when Cliff Jack's Son was mauled on the table for order they was lots a familiar faces looked up, like Judge Stew It, and Steal Well Russell and Mansfield, Make Merry and Corner it, and J. B. Stump Some and Sam Rather Ford, and Col. Tom Bark Some, and Jim Misgivings and Ben Lay For It, and Col. Clarence Dug Last, and old stayers like that."

Then Tookpafka Micco he say, "Well, so but Col. Clarence Dug Last was a big republican."

And Hotgun he say, "Well, so he is; but he like to butt in."

(Wolf Warrior and Kono Harjo they was move further in the shade under the catapa tree and still pay close attention.)

Then Hotgun he go on and say, "Well, so, the democrats was got down to stomp dancing right good like a green corn husk and made Ben Lay For It ring leader, while Cliff Jack's Son was beat on the tum-tum and Judge Stew It was made a strong medicine and Man's Field, Make Merry and Corner It was gobbled right keen and threw their hair back on they shoulder.

"They was three candidates running for chief and maybe so you couldn't count all that want to be large delegates to the big stomp dance at St. Louis and also drive on the band wagon."

The ring leader he say, "Well so all who was friends to Mayor Dick could hold up they hands for the secretary to count."

But they was no one hold up his paw but a feller that was look like the picture of Christ, called Lead Better.

Then the ring leader he say, "Well, so, who want to vote for Old Hailey anyhow?"

And Judge Stew It and Us Rustle was showed they hands.

And the ring leader he say, "Well, so, let's see who vote for Bob Willing."

And Cliff Jack's Son and Sam Rather Ford and Tommy Owing was bolted they instructions for Old Hailey and flopped over like a eel out of water and the band played Dixie. (See A. Loon and Fred Barde they was sit back under the arbor under the premium crayon pictures a Lee and Jackson and Jefferson and forefathers a democracy like that and kept score for the powwow.)

Then they was all vote to see who be large delegates to the big stomp dance to St Louis, and lots of yokels was elected that never had they names in the neighborhood notes a they home paper. Maybe so they was easy game for the bunco man and the policeman in the park.

Then the pow-wow passed lots a time honored resolutions agin the Phillippines and George the Third and federal pie counter and Injin Territory Volunteer Militia.

"Then Lead Better was submitted a resolution to take out the partition between Oklahoma and Injin Territory, but he was ruled out a the ring by the medicine man."

And Tookpafka Micco he say, "Well, so, who they follow for next president?"

And Hotgun he say, "Well, so may be they was followed the Hearse."