

CLAREMORE PROGRESS

Claremore, Indian Territory
October 13, 1894
Vol. 2            No. 36
Editors name not given

EDITORIAL ON L. C. PERRYMAN

Chief Perryman has vetoed the bill making it a crime for a Creek citizen to lease lands in the nation to an alien. His principal reason for so doing being the certainty of complications arising and injustices being practiced on account of the crudeness in the construction of the bill and severity of penalty imposed for so slight an offense. --
"Indian Journal."