Mrs C Pitchlym

Dear Madam

I see in the papers H. McKee has got his fee and I am anxious to know something about my little sum does promise me & wife Col Pitchlym never gave me any writing pertaining to the fee I was to get and thinking he told you about the matter if he said you well please let me know I was promised ten thousand ^{dollars} and my wife two thousand but the amt has been cut ^{down} from time to time of course the fees will be cut according. If he left no information pertaining to the matter with you I shall have no show.
My general health is tolerable good neuralgia in cheek bone has been by sever Causey & Profess that one Constant Emmit Kennedy is just getting over a spell of sickness we live alone with hired help no woman to control Emmit and he has associated with bad fellows he is a ruccie chap when I get something to send him of I shall send him off and keep him off until he gets grown Rhoda ^{and} has two sons Loring and Edward Davies my sons - son David is a big boy his mother Martha a man David Perce is a drunkard so is Permetia his wife David her son I learning bad habits if I can get any thing to send him off I shall take charge of him and send him off out of her influence I am very sorry to hear of Soph's long sickness

The County is over run with U.S. Cattle of the blackest kind crops and cuts of cotton from to much raw cotton good times they sell health good large pastures big farms and the prairie all over good improvement near the rail roads off in the County just about the same when you was here the old set of people passed away and a new set take their places - good change - I still have rheumatism in my right arm & shoulder - peas If you have any information about the land I was promised let me know by so any much Obli

Very Respectfully Yours
