

Treaty stipulations made and entered into this 19th day of June 1865, at Doaksville Choctaw Nation. Between Leut. Colonel A.C. Matthews and W.H. Vance. U.S. (vols?) Commissioners appointed by the military authorities of the United States, and P.P. Pitchlynn, Governor and Principal Chief of the Choctaw Nation, on the part of said Nation as follows to wit:

Article II:

All acts of hostilities on the part of both armies having ceased by virtue of a convention entered into on the 26th day of May 1865 between Major Gen'l E.R.S. Canby, U.S.A. Commanding Military Division West Miss., and Gen'l E. Kirby Smith C.S.A. Commanding Trans Miss Department, the Indians of the Choctaw Nation here represented-- lately allied with the Confederate States in acts of hostilities against the Government of the United States, do agree at once to return to their respective homes and there remain at peace with the United States, and offer no indignity whatever, or commit any acts of hostilities against the whites, or Indians of the various tribes who have been friendly to or engaged in the service of the United States during the war.

Article 2nd

It is stipulated by the undersigned commissioners on the part of the United States that so long as the Indians aforesaid observe the provisions of Article First of this agreement they shall be protected by the United States authorities, in their person and property, not only from encroachments on the part of the whites, but also from the Indians who have been engaged in the service of the United States,

Article 3rd

The above articles of agreement to remain and be in full force, and effect until the meeting of the Grand Council to meet at Armstrong Academy Choctaw Nation, on the first day of September ___ 1865, and until such time as the proceedings of said Grand Council, shall be ratified by the proper authorities, both of the Choctaw Nation and the United States.

In testimony whereof the said Leut. Col. A.C. Matthews and adjutant William H. Vance Commissioners on part of the United States and P.P. Pitchlynn Governor and Principal Chief of the Choctaw Nation, have hereunto set their hand and seals.
