

Highly April 27th 1849 Cal

Amalako Se ma

Sir

I have just had an interview with the old Stud he got home last week but I did not see him until yesterday he is as fat as a pig he looks better than I ever saw him the old Stud I in good humor Malvina and my self went over and the old man was in fine spirits he is a grate old Coon the old Coon told me you was getting along Manely he says you are doing fine by I was glad to hear of my Malakose doing well Pus you have got a good mine and why not properly Cultivate it as you ought while you have a good chance stick to it learn while you have a chance I have been a good one Amongst your notation inquiry is made about my boy sent Push name appears to be neutrot that is nothing Study the harder Excel all the boys and you best go it hard leave off all your wild foolish ways and apply your self the Closer to your studies you know that I ought to know I have been wild and foolish but now I can see the unprofit of it therefore I advise you to flee from the Befalling danger Push I hope you will let out my letter and do your best Malvina sends her love to you she says best them all and when you come home you write us about them we was very sorry to hear of the death of Priscilla but that is a story we all will have to yield to the Girl or Ladies as you qualify and we all terms them are all well No marriage lately No news worth writing only your Uncle Sam is heard at of his life he is dodging about he has moved to the Mountain fork Our neighbourhood is perfectly Calm since your boy sent Push moved away we have got a good neighbourhood times hard people starting for California Co doing them

I thought I would close my Epistle But I thought If I was off from home I would think kind of my friends would write me nothing but study for Peace was the P. I should feel bad about Sarah Pash is just sad I would like to know how she was going on and I would make some of those who I gave money the old man I talk about money as much as ever the old man got a heap of our good forgy in Washington I hope he pretends to Nido or know I know him of old I got a Chan I will hug some of the Miss for you The girls is not as proud of me as they use to be as I am an old married man I will make old hill hope open If they dont look out some down foot are not down tuthy About my Merry yet they appear to hope the old man would pick up but they was disappoite more than lie to the old man they talk to go back but they would be there old time boy Before they would say it to my face I am a while shape in a black face Or a black shape in a white flock and I be able to I can solve it I want you to get down to your room and solve it and Report to me next mail the old Coon dont fancy you pretty while and Lillian Pettigrew Manners god Bless her I like her I fancy her nothing but you might mail me some minutes forty to read some of Your friend

C. W. S.

Dear Brother I will drop a few lines to you but I hardly know what to write. Father ~~has~~ got home last on Sunday old man looks very well. I was very sorry to hear death of William. poor boy died far from home.
hope you ~~will~~ will be spared to live and return home and Rhoda I take it very hard about it. my own family are all well Peter and Leon is at home with father. you must write of I will write to you by the next mail. f from your sister M. J.

DOVER N.H.
APR 30
A.M.

10

L.P. Hitchman

New York & Liver
@